Fargo, N.D. native interns with University of North Dakota’s award-winning television show

Elizabeth Denning helps develop creative marketing strategies for the Studio One television program. The show plays Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. and Thursdays at 2:00 p.m. on Channel 99 in Fargo.

GRAND FORKS, N.D. — Fargo, N.D. native, Elizabeth Denning is in her first semester interning with Studio One, an award-winning news program produced at the University of North Dakota. Denning is an intern on the Studio One marketing team. “I love all of the people I work with and all of the opportunities to grow and learn more about marketing and professional development… [Studio One has] reinforced that marketing is the right path for me,” she says.

As a freshman at UND, Denning has found ways to get involved on campus. She is the vice president of the UND DECA chapter and also a member of the on-campus ministry group, Chi Alpha.

Denning graduated from Davies High School in 2012 and is the daughter of Jackie and Don Denning. She is pursuing a marketing degree at UND and plans to work in marketing, PR or advertising after graduation.

Studio One is an award-winning news and information program produced at the University of North Dakota Television Center. The program airs Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. and Thursdays at 2:00 p.m. on Channel 99 in Fargo. The program can also be seen by viewers in Bismarck-Mandan, Dickinson, Grand Forks, Jamestown, Minot and Ray, N.D.; Minneapolis and Saint Paul, Minn.; Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo.; Winnipeg and Brandon, Manitoba and online at www.studio1.und.edu.
