Fergus Falls, Minn. native reports for University of North Dakota’s award-winning television show

Kaylar Neumann gains experience as she reports news stories for the live television program, Studio One. The award-winning news show airs on Channel 3 in Grand Forks.

GRAND FORKS, N.D. — Fergus Falls, Minn. native, Kaylar Neumann is in her first semester interning with UND’s television show, Studio One. Although she is a new member to the news team, Neumann has excelled in her position as a news reporter, as well as her live show day position as floor manager. “My favorite part of working with Studio One is the environment. The atmosphere that people bring makes you want to do better at your job and always want to learn new things. They also offer many opportunities that will help with my future goals,” she explains.

In addition to her time dedicated to Studio One and her school work, Neumann is an active member of her sorority Alpha Phi. Through this organization she was granted the Kunkel, Marcella, McGinn Scholarship. She also stays busy as a hockey cheerleader.

Neumann graduated in the spring of 2010 from Fergus Falls High School and is a junior at UND studying communication with an emphasis in public relations. After she graduates, she plans to pursue a career as a public relations consultant in the sports industry or work for a television studio as a director.

Studio One is an award-winning news and information program produced at the University of North Dakota Television Center. The program airs live on UND Channel 3 on Thursdays at 5 p.m. Re-broadcasts can be seen at 7 a.m., noon, 7 p.m. and 11 p.m. daily and on Saturdays at 10 a.m. Prairie Public Television airs Studio One on Saturday at 6 a.m. The program can also be seen by viewers in Bismarck-Mandan, Dickinson, Fargo, Jamestown, Minot and Ray, N.D.; Minneapolis and Saint Paul, Minn.; Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo.; Winnipeg and Brandon, Manitoba and online at www.studio1.und.edu.
