Woodbury, Minn. native anchors weather for University of North Dakota’s award-winning television show

Kellen Peters brings passion and experience to the television program, Studio One, as he anchors the weather on live television. The award-winning news show plays on Channel 6 in Minneapolis.

GRAND FORKS, N.D. — Woodbury, Minn. native, Kellen Peters, is a weather team intern with UND’s award-winning television program, Studio One. This is his third semester with the program and served as weather anchor and weather producer this past semester. “Studio One has given me the hands-on experience [to be successful in] broadcasting, producing and writing and editing packages. I feel well rounded and prepared for news broadcasting,” says Peters. In the past, he received the Studio One Recognition of Excellence Award for his exceptional contributions to the program.

In addition to Studio One, Peters stays busy with his Fraternity, Pi Kappa Alpha, as well as anchoring for UND’s Weekly Weather Update television show. In the fall of 2012 he achieved a spot on the Deans List.

Peters is the son of Tom Peters and Martha Peabody. He graduated from Woodbury High School in the spring of 2009 and is currently a senior in atmospheric science at UND. Peters plans to graduate in the fall of 2013 and says he wants to pursue a career in broadcast meteorology at a news station.

Studio One is an award-winning news and information program produced at the University of North Dakota Television Center. The program airs at 10:30 a.m. Wednesdays and Thursdays on Channel 6 in Minneapolis. The program can also be seen by viewers in Bismarck-Mandan, Dickinson, Fargo, Grand Forks, Jamestown, Minot and Ray, N.D.; Saint Paul, Minn., Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo.; Winnipeg and Brandon, Manitoba and online at www.studio1.und.edu.
