Bloomington, Minn. native interns with University of North Dakota’s award-winning television show, Studio One

Alex Stadnik brings photography and directing skills to the television program, Studio One. The award-winning news show plays on Channel 6 in Minneapolis.

GRAND FORKS, N.D. — Bloomington Minn., native Alex Stadnik, is an intern for Studio One, an award-winning television show, produced at UND. This is his first semester with the program. He is a photographer during the week and is the technical director during the weekly live production. As a photographer, he works with reporters to shoot video footage. He uses visual communication principles to help tell stories. “I love getting to do new things every week,” says Stadnik. “Meeting new people and seeing new things, it’s all been a lot of fun.”

Stadnik is the son of Joseph and Sharon Stadnik. He graduated from the Academy of Holy Angels in 2012 and is currently a freshman in the Communication Program at UND. After graduation, he says his goal is to work in the communication field.

Studio One is an award-winning news and information program produced at the University of North Dakota Television Center. The program airs at 10:30 a.m. Wednesdays and Thursdays on Channel 6 in Minneapolis. The program can also be seen by viewers in Bismarck-Mandan, Dickinson, Fargo, Grand Forks, Jamestown, Minot and Ray, N.D.; Saint Paul, Minn., Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo.; Winnipeg and Brandon, Manitoba and online at www.studio1.und.edu.
